The Honorable William Alsup,
Judge, United States District Court
Phillip Burton Federal Building & United States Courthouse
16th floor
450 Golden Gate Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94102

Feb 28th, 2011

Dear Judge Alsup,

I have filed a motion to dismiss (Case NO. CV10-5596 DMR) for lack of personal jurisdiction. I live in Arizona and I am appearing pro se in this litigation.

I am being told that I am supposed to engage in discovery pursuant to FRCP Rule 26. But I would like to object to that scheduling pursuant to FRCP Rule 46 and Rule 26(a)(1)(C).

I would like to ask the court's permission to allow me not to be engaged in discovery and to not appear at the scheduled case management conference, at least until the court has decided whether it actually has personal jurisdiction over me.

I would like to ask the court's guidance on this matter.

Sincerely,

Dan Wen
